THE PAST, A KEY FOR THE FUTURE

Time moves on forever
Placing all into the past,
But progress is inevitable,
And life thrives on contrast.

Life's highway grew broader
As we approached our seniorhood,
And new horizons beckoned us
As we never dreamed they would.

Not long ago we juniors
Had just two years ahead.
We had no guiding traditions,
So we founded some instead.

Good times we now are leaving
In classrooms, gym, and halls;
Yet our voices remain impended,
Locked within Myers Park's walls.

A score of large decisions
Meet us at this journey's end,
And we are grateful for the knowledge
Which we gained and now may spend.

Our high school days have ended;
Those joyous days have past,
But deep within our hearts
They will forever last. . . .

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF MECKLENBURG
CITY OF CHARLOTTE

We, the illustrious and honored Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-three, of Myers Park High School, aforesaid state and county, being of as reasonably sound mind as could be expected after our twelve year term of confinement, being possessed of equally reasonably sound memories, after the ordeals of Macbeth's soliloquies, and having been in full possession of our faculty(s), by whose clutches we may no longer be profaned, do hereby make, declare, and publish this document as our last will and testament.

We, realizing that we have been prodigiously endowed with intelligence, personality, and character of such a profuse, yet unadulterated and true nature, wish to bequeath a small portion of these aforesaid traits to the less fortunate underclassmen in the hopes that they will see fit to follow the pattern set by our example and to strive to equal our achievements.

Wherefore, as to such estate as it has pleased the fates and our own undeniable talents to acquire, we dispose of the same as follows, viz:

ARTICLE I—TO THE FACULTY

ITEMS:

1. To Dr. John E. French we bequeath a torch, symbolizing the light he has shed in all dark recesses of Myers Park High School. On this torch let there be no inscription, as we feel that words, even the most flowery and eloquent, are inadequate to express the depths of our love and gratitude.

2. With Mister Porter Sheppard we leave the title "Sheepdog" and with it sincere respect for a man who has shown us that discipline can be combined with friendship and comraderie.

3. To the office force and guidance personnel we leave our heartfelt appreciation and thanks for their co-operation, counsel, and sympathetic understanding.

4. To each of the faculty we hereby bequeath one keen-bladed axe in the hopes that this will encourage them to continue their splendid job of chopping down superfluous and prejudicial student-teacher barriers to a minimum, while still maintaining a maximum of respect.

ARTICLE II—TO THE UNDERCLASSMEN

ITEMS:

1. To the Juniors we leave our title Seniors, and with it all the privileges and responsibilities that it entails. Use this prestige and its immunities fully, but with dignity and never to the point of excess or abuse.

2. To all underclassmen we leave Myers Park High School and with it precious gems of friendship and experience that can never be replaced in the treasure chests of our lives. Guard and polish these jewels; add to them, that they may shine out with lustre, proving the worth of our Alma Mater.

ARTICLE III—INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS

ITEMS:

1. We, Charlie Barnhardt and Robbie Robertson, do hereby will our unmatched and unmatched maidenly blushes, along with our Tarzan tactics—holding hands on the third date—to Ricky "Becky" Booth, who is a shade bolder than we are.

2. I, Linda Schoof, leave my "okey doakle" to Emily Armstrong, in the hopes that the "Oh Johnny" girl can say it as well and as often as I have.

3. I, Pat Hunter, leave the underclassmen the results of two years of service to the school.

4. I, Jane Little, leave my extreme good looks and the odd way I carry my books to Linda Cutter, who has the looks and can master the books.

5. I, Jamie Kratt, bequeath my flamin' tresses to Helena Colyer.

6. I, Pat Cayce, leave my six inch eyelashes to Gerri Smith, hoping that she will have as high a batting average as I have.

7. I, Bobby Sisk, leave my illustrious golf balls to Gene Lookabill and Buzzy Basinger, who have some pretty famous ones also.

8. I, Nancy Suttle, will my industry on the 'SparK, my service to the school, and my popularity to anyone who can handle them and still retain his sincerity and sunny disposition as I have.

9. We, Judy "Needles" Parsons, Elaine "Will o' the Wisp" Burns, and Donna "Wasp-waist" Kurtz, bequeath our symmetrical slimness to Catherine Brown, Pat Kendrick, and Sissy Rigbee, who have done well in their own right.

10. We, Tommy Hall and Charles Swett, leave by the nearest exit.

11. I, Betsy Bost, leave my beautiful blondness, my slew feet, and my ability to effervesce to Nancy Davis, if she wants to try to handle all three.

12. I, Audrey Ario, bequeath my title of "Little Audrey" to a Junior namesake, Katie Ardrey.

13. I, Charlie Clanton, leave my honey-coated vocal cords to Ronnie "The Voice" Stone.

14. I, Joy Harris, leave, but return "Just-in" time to take someone with me.

15. I, Murray Heath, bequeath my success with, and love for, frogs and worms in biology to any aesthete worthy of the trust.

16. I, Tommy "T-Square" Thompson, leave in my '35 and take my "tee hee" with me.

17. I, Jo Helen Huss, will my Southern drawl to June Ballard.

18. I, Bill Elander, leave my "cuteness" to George Goolsby, who has a little of his own.

19. I, Martha Stone, leave and head for the "Woods."

20. I, John Robinson, bequeath my ability with the Speed Graflex to Joe Boston.

21. I, Patsy Haughton, leave my unsurpassed ability to prevaricate, prefabricate, satirize, and humorize, to Kay Covington.

22. I, Roy "Rodent" Campbell, bequeath my oratorical and debating success to anyone who can manage to be as well informed as I am.

23. I, Marie Thompson, leave for "Dook" and Grady, and bequeath my title as Miss Myers Park to anyone who can wear it as gracefully and modestly as I have.

24. I, Mac Mauldin, leave, with regrets, "Sod."

25. I, Sue Ann Whiting, leave with "Ham Bone" in the "Blue Beetle."

26. I, Dick "Big Time" Schenck, bequeath my supreme superiority to Henry "Swamie" Swanzey, who is also destined for the top. My basketball skill I leave to Gregory LeNeave and his dog, Dutch, hoping that the two of them can successfully manage it.

27. I, Judy Houston, leave mournfully the sighs and gasps which followed me from S. C. to L. A.

28. I, George Trapp, leave my big toe in memory of better days.

29. I, Janet Rich, do hereby bequeath my ability to make friends to Beverly Senna.

30. We, Cal and Mary May Mitchell, leave in separate cars as usual.

31. I, Alice Keith Pfohl, will my phenomenal musical ability to all lovers of art.

32. I, Nancy (Saunders) Holder, leave my maiden name.

33. I, "Big" Jim Bradford, leave my soaring height to David "Mouse" Reid so that someone else will know how the weather is tomorrow for a change.

34. I, Liz Martin, leave with Billy.

35. I, Willa May Young, leave my intelligence and sweet disposition to Nancy McIntyre.

36. I, Buddy Love, bequeath my rhyming rhythm and Dixieland ditties to Duke Lett, who is indeed a Southern gentleman.

37. I, Emily Cousart, leave and take my diamond with me.

38. I, Flay Reid, bequeath my French horn lips to Gwen Daly.

39. I, Sally Hall, will my ability to start new fads and to learn all the "hard" expressions to Edith Hall, who will be able to fill the "Halls of Verse" with as much spark and originality as I have.

40. I, Kirby Carter, bequeath my ability to look down on everyone and still remain liked by all to Jane Patten, who is also a towering terror.

41. I, Mary Williams, will my sweet smile to all male-seeking females.

42. I, Bill Michal, leave my popularity and well-roundedness to Nancy Green, who, I believe, is already doing well in both fields.

43. We, Cecil Flowers and Pete Peterson, will our ability to roam over the hills and far away to Dan "Oom pa pa" Moffatt and Charles Lewis.

44. I, Mary Jo Conrad, bequeath my rendition of "A Good Man Is Hard To Find" to anyone who has the eyeballs and swivel hips to manage it.

45. I, Cecil Ozan, do hereby bequeath my tactful ways and my Key Club membership to Jack "Pretty Boy" Farris.

46. I, Tony "Tonto" Simon, leave on my mighty horse Pinto.

47. I, Bob Hurst, bequeath my Rudolph Valentino ways with the eighth grade girls to Bill Heil, who with training may learn to be as suave a Casanova as I am.

CLASS PROPHECY

"The old order changeth, yielding place to the new." . . .

As the second graduating class of Myers Park High School passes through its ultra modern doors and into the dimly lit corridor of the future, it is interesting to open the doors of time and see what the unfolding years hold for the varied personalities of the class of 1953. We now hold the key to the future; come with me as we unlock the door to:

1954—Dr. Don Douglas, having completed four years of college and two years of graduate work at Harvard University during the 1953-54 session, is teaching kindergarten students how to increase their vocabulary.

1955—Gypsy Rose Reece and Norby (the profile) Barrymore, III, are now touring the Belgium Conga with their show for toothless cannibals, "North Atlantic."

1956—Hope Jarrell, who took an overdose of John Hasty's "Slow Grow Pills, for people under two and one half feet who feel inferior," has reached the height of eight feet, ten inches during the last month.

1957—"Calamity Corey and his Blue Beetle" was the main feature at the international hot-rod races this year.

Marie Partridge and her distinguished husband, who is president of the Citadel, were prominent figures in many newsreels.

1958—The most exclusive car on the market, "Reid's Robot," came out in January. Designer Reid Huntley said that the streamlined model, completely devoid of a motor, is a replica of his winning soap box derby racer.

1959—Jane Wrinkle, famous model for the "Which girl has the phoney" (red hair) ads, appears in the latest issue of "Slime," a combination of "Life" and "Time."

Prime minister to the Sahara Desert, Phyllis McAnulty, and president of the United States, David Michaux, have recently introduced in the United Planets Assembly a plan to completely reorganize the organizations that have organized the reorganizing organizations. The purpose of this plan is, of course, to get rid of ham and cheese sandwiches in the Myers Park cafeteria.

1960—Larry Hays, manager of the famous French night club "Nes Cafe" is featuring nightly Dot La Herring singing "Ze Feesh Gotta Zwim."

1961—Betsy Farmer and Patsy Garrett sped across the seven seas in Betsy's emerald green convertible to Siam to see their former teacher Louie "Pato" Pate.

Sue Cochran's popular novel "Tap Happy" was a record seller this year.

Caroline Anderson, who is combining her tennis career with social work, states that the world would be in a better condition if everyone would follow her example of "love-love."

1962—Mimi Singwell made her debut at the Met, in April, when she sang the beautiful opera, "La Trivial." This was the great star's first and last performance due to the fact that her husband, Don Haney, chief usher at the Met, as of the last performance no longer holds his job.

Carol Marshburn, the great architect who set the leaning tower of Pisa straight, and put spectacles on the Sphinx, will return to Myers Park this year to be the guest speaker at graduation exercises. Her subject will be "How to Twist Pretzels for a Career."

1963—Ray Linker, editor, publisher, photographer, reporter, and copy boy of "Ray's Plays," "The paper for all red blooded boys who eat raw hamburgers," boasts that his is the only paper to circulate around the world plus having subscribers on Mars and Pluto.

World famous fashion designers, Beverly Ward and Jewel Brunsen, flew to Paris via "Flighty McKennel's Airlines," to show their latest creation in the "Phew Look," the "Stinki" bathing suit.

Martha Ann Potter, who is now carrying mail by dog sled on the Arctic Trail, stated that she could never make it without her "Sheep-dog."

1964—The Honorable Dr. Dick Snick recently founded a rest home for neurotic basketball players who have water on the knee. Head nurse at Snick's Hill, Dottie (Magpie) Nightingale, states that many of the patients (ex-Mustang players) can only be cured by shock treatments. These treatments are successfully administered when several nurses harmonize on "When those Central Wildcats fall in line."

Bob Chesney, editor of "Chesney's Cheesecake" was voted the artist most likely to have his work banned from the news-stands.

1965—Pat Mulvihill's hit play "I Remember Mama Kissing Santa Claus" didn't make Broadway but in its revised form is playing in China Town as "Chop, Chop, Big Flop"!

"Jump and jerk to the music of Joe Wallwork and his clarinet" is listed as one of the most unusual programs on television.

Mary Masterman is the magnet of the "Moonshine Company," which produces the only hair product known that keeps the head lit up night and day.

1966—Anne Nicholson, the author who revised the Rubaiyat, has perfected the play of a comparatively unknown writer, William Shakespeare, and dubbed it "Macmauldin." After touring the world several times, she has settled permanently in Mau Mau, an island off French Morocco. Anne and her business associate, "Queenie" Rose, run a gambling casino and dance hall for all soldiers of foreign legion docking at the "Isle of Pair-of-Dice." "Queenie" has recently disclosed that this business is only a front for the secretive work which she is now completing on finger painting.

1967—Dick Kienle, who wrote "What Every 'Little' Girl Should Know" made a trip around the world to give diplomas to all Myers Park students of the class of '53 who were late paying their extra $.75.

"Elegant Everett" Wohlbruck, the famous wrestler who succeeded "Gorgeous George," has won every match that he has lit thus far.

1968—Hank "The Hunk" Chambliss was the box office idol of millions this year. Because of injuries received during his high school football career back in 1953, he was a perfect for the starring role of "Farewell to Arms."

1969—Tommy Robertson, who recently opened the "Duckbill Platypus," comparative to the "Stork" of the olden days, filed his eighty-second divorce suit on March 13. Charging his recent wife with cruelty, incompatibility, and desertion (due to the fact that she was unable to engineer his electric train), "Risqué" Robertson is now in search of the eighty-third spouse.

1970—John Shelton, professor of paradoxical preoccupation, is now doing graduate work at Myers Park High School.

Many doors are better left closed and had I known that some of the supposedly innocent students of the class of '53 were to lead such notorious lives, I would not have turned the key that opened the lock to the future. Let's lock the doors now to the private lives of many of our old friends. Frankly, I'd rather that you didn't tell them of what you have witnessed in this revealing trip into the future.

"Opportunity knocks but once at every door." PERHAPS!

Others tell us that opportunity comes frequently to all—and that an important ingredient for success lies in our ability to recognize opportunity when we see it!

The right to own life insurance is an opportunity generally available to youth—But, if not taken advantage of, either the opportunity is lost (by health impairment) or the cost to acquire it becomes greater (premiums increase with age).

Your parents, your advisers, your studies—all make you aware that some day (soon!) YOU must own considerable life insurance to help YOU on the road to success in life and in business. Discuss this idea with your parents, and others if you wish,

And then call on us for information as to why
OWNING LIFE INSURANCE NOW IS AN UNEQUALLED
